Dear Mr. Galbraith:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request number GSA-2022-001366, submitted on July 14, 2022, in which you requested the following:

“Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, I hereby request the following records: A list of applications and department partners currently using login.gov in production for identity management, applications and partners that have communicated to GSA or the Login.gov project the intent to use login.gov as an identity provider but are not yet in production (ie still in development, testing, QA, etc), and any publicly available URLs where this information is already available on partners.login.gov. The requested documents will be made available to the general public, and this request is not being made for commercial purposes.”

Enclosed, please find two files responsive to your request. The released records are internal partnerships trackers (as of November 30, 2022). In processing your request, GSA has withheld information in the “Protocol” category in the Login.gov Application List. This is done pursuant to the fifth and sixth exemptions of FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) and (b)(6), because this information is privileged and publicly disclosing it would pose a risk to computer system security. Additionally, releasing this information would also constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

As we have redacted information referenced above with the aforementioned FOIA exemptions, this technically constitutes a partial denial of your FOIA request. You have the right to appeal the denial of the information being withheld. You may submit an appeal online at the following link (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>) or in writing to the following address:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center
1800 F Street, NW
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of the response to your request. In addition, your appeal must contain a brief statement of the reasons why the requested information should be released. Please enclose a copy of your initial request and this denial. Both the appeal letter and envelope or online appeal submission should be prominently marked, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes our action on this FOIA request. Should you have any questions, you may contact Nathan Osburn by email at Nathan.Osburn@gsa.gov. You may also contact the GSA FOIA Public Liaison, David Eby at (202) 213-2745 or by email at david.eby@gsa.gov for any additional assistance.

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, email at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at (202) 741-5770; toll free at (877) 684-6448; or facsimile at (202) 741-5769.

Sincerely,

Theresa Ottery
